

PARAMED TATTOO

Enterprise Policy Pack

1. Privacy Policy

Paramed Tattoo may collect, retain, analyse, archive, process, and use educational, operational, treatment-related, observational, analytical, communication, practitioner, and platform information for Programme delivery, compliance, safety, accreditation, educational refinement, AI-assisted systems, and practitioner infrastructure.

2. Refund Policy

Programme fees are generally non-refundable except where required under applicable New Zealand law.

No refund shall ordinarily be provided for:

- change of mind;
- scheduling conflict;
- non-attendance;
- withdrawal;
- dissatisfaction;
- business circumstances;
- or failure to complete Programme requirements.

3. Practitioner Standards

Participants are required to maintain professional standards relating to hygiene, infection control, informed consent, truthful advertising, operational safety, treatment suitability assessment, legal compliance, and practitioner conduct.

Unsafe, misleading, unlawful, unethical, or operationally incompatible conduct may result in suspension, revoked access, or permanent removal from Programme infrastructure.
